

Agenda

Webinar Series on Development and COVID-19

Tax policy options for funding the post-COVID recovery in the Global South

23 July 2020 – 1500 to 1645 (CET)

1500-1505	Welcoming Remarks
	Prof Carlos Correa, Executive Director, South Centre Dr Dereje Alemayehu, Executive Coordinator, Global Alliance for Tax Justice
	Kickoff Speaker
1505-1515	Challenges of Domestic Resource Mobilisation (DRM) in the Global South amid COVID-19
	Lidy Nacpil, Coordinator, Asian Peoples' Movement on Debt and Development
1515-1605	Discussion Panel
1515-1525	Redistributing taxing rights to developing countries – the Two Pillar Approach and the way forward from the impasse
	Eric Mensah, Co-chairperson, UN Committee of Experts on International Cooperation in Tax Matters
1525-1535	Alternative international frameworks from the South for taxing the digitalized economy
	Rajat Bansal, Member, UN Committee of Experts on International Cooperation in Tax Matters
1535-1545	National measures for taxing the digitalised economy
	Daniel Uribe Teran, Programme Officer, Sustainable Development, Climate Change and Gender Program, South Centre
1545-1555	Financing the recovery from COVID-19 – domestic options for developing countries
	Ricardo Martner, independent economist and Commissioner of the Independent Commission for the Reform of International Corporate Taxation (ICRICT)
1555-1605	South- South cooperation facing the COVID-19 induced socio-economic crisis
	Charles Abugre, Member of Technical Advisory Council of Tax Justice Network Africa

	Moderator: Abdul Muheet Chowdhary, Senior Programme Officer, Sustainable Development, Climate Change and Gender Program, South Centre
1605-1635	Q&A Session
1635-1645	Closing Remarks