

Open Consultation on

The Process to Negotiate a Legally Binding Instrument on Business and Human Rights

18 October 2023, 15:30 CET

SPEAKERS

Andressa Soares is the Coordinator of Homa - Human Rights and Business Centre of the Federal University of Juiz de Fora, Brazil. She is a specialist in Diplomatic Studies, and Former Visiting Professional at the Inter-American Court of Human Rights. She holds a LL.M. in Human Rights and is currently a PhD candidate in International Law at University of São Paulo.

Marcela Arias is a lawyer and currently working as a diplomat at the Permanent Mission of Honduras to the UN. She holds a Master of Public Policy from the University of Oxford and has previously worked for the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights where she focused on the economic, social and cultural rights branch.

Manoela Roland is part of the General Coordination of Business and Human Rights in the Ministry of Human Rights and Citizenship of Brazil. She is also Professor at the Federal University of Juiz de Fora and Visiting Professor at the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro. She was previously the General coordinator at the Homa - Center for Human Rights and Business.

Daniel Uribe is Lead Programme Officer of the Sustainable Development and Climate Change Programme of the South Centre. He has been extensively engaged in the issues of business and human rights and on the implications of international investment agreements in sustainable development for developing countries.

Danish is Programme Officer of the Sustainable Development and Climate Change Programme of the South Centre, where he works on the reform of the international investment regime, business and human rights, and South-South and Triangular Cooperation.