

Event moderator: Viviana Munoz Tellez, Phd. Coordinator of the Health, Intellectual Property and Biodiversity Programme of the South Centre.

Opening remarks: Carlos M. Correa, Executive Director, South Centre

Biographies of the panel members:

Ms. V Hekali Zhimomi is presently posted as Additional Secretary and Director General (National Aids Control Organisation), Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India. Prior to her posting in Central Government, Ms. Zhimomi served as Principal Secretary, Women and Child Development in the Government of Uttar Pradesh and prior to that, had served as Secretary in the Department of Health and Family Welfare.

Dr. Rizka Andalucia is a clinical pharmacist with the current role of Director General for Pharmaceutical and Medical Devices in Ministry of Health Republic Indonesia. She also is Sovereign Investor Board Member of Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations (CEPI) from 2022-2025. Previously she was assigned as Director of Drug Registration and Director and Director for Standardization of Drug, Narcotic, Psychotropic, Precursor, and Addictive Substance in Indonesia FDA

Ms. Rius Sanjuan is Director of the Department of Innovation, Access to Medicines and Health Technologies (IMT) at PAHO/WHO. A lawyer and global policy expert on innovation and access to medicines. Her professional background includes experience in civil society, academia, the private sector, and most recently with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in New York.

Dr. Ayode Alakija is a medical doctor, humanitarian leader and expert in pandemic preparedness, global health security, and diplomacy. Dr. Alakija is Co-Chair of the G7 endorsed Impact Investment Initiative in Global Health (Triple I), Chair of Foundation for Innovative New Diagnostics (FIND) and WHO Special Envoy for the Access to COVID -19 Tools (ACT)-Accelerator.

Dr Sergio Sosa-Estani is Director of the Drugs for Neglected Disease Initiative (DNDi) Latin America. MD, PhD. Medical Surgeon. School of Medicine, University of Córdoba. Master in Public Health, School of Public Health, Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Doctor in Medicine, School of Medicine, University of Buenos Aires. Post-doctoral at CEBGH/SPHTM Tulane University.

Ms. Marcela Vieira is the Regional Advocacy Advisor for Latin America at Medecins Sans Frontieres' Access Campaign. She holds degrees in law and public health and has been working on access to medicines and innovation issues for the past twenty years.

Susana Ribeiro is the Regional Head Latin America for the Global Antibiotic R&D Partnership (GARDP). Her past experiences in the region are focused on policy and advocacy and project implementation, specially within the fields of immunization and malaria. Susana has also worked as a humanitarian having managed healthcare services and coordinated COVID-19 responses in conflict zones with Oxfam and similar organizations.